

Archived at the Flinders Academic Commons:
<http://hdl.handle.net/2328/27231>

This is a scan of a document number DUN/Speeches/1791 in the Dunstan Collection, Special Collections, Flinders University Library.
<http://www.flinders.edu.au/library/info/collections/special/dunstan/>

Title:

Press release: Wine excise

Please acknowledge the source as:
Dunstan Collection, Flinders University Library.
Identifier: DUN/Speeches/1791

© Copyright Estate Donald Allan Dunstan

PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

WINE EXCISE.

9.8.72

The Premier, Mr. Dunstan, today called on the Federal Treasurer, Mr. Snedden, to repeal the wine excise in next Tuesday's budget.

He was opening extensions to the Adelaide premises of Kaiser Stuhl Wines.

"Mr. Snedden did half the job last May when he reduced the excise to 2½%.

"But the tax should never have been imposed in the first place.

"And it should be totally lifted now."

Mr. Dunstan said it was absurd that a Government ostensibly dedicated to helping rural industry had placed a damaging impost on the one sector of primary production which has been thriving.

The excise had had a discriminatory effect in that it had hit South Australia - the country's leading wine State - particularly hard.

"I hope that in making his budget proposals Mr. Snedden will heed all the representations that have been made to him and lift this unnecessary tax", the Premier said.

The Premier said it was a tribute to the enterprise of Kaiser Stuhl Wines as well as to the quality of their product that they had been able to launch an expansion programme despite such difficulties as those produced by the excise.

112

PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

WINE EXCISE.

9.8.72

The Premier, Mr. Dunstan, today called on the Federal Treasurer, Mr. Snedden, to repeal the wine excise in next Tuesday's budget.

He was opening extensions to the Adelaide premises of Kaiser Stuhl Wines.

"Mr. Snedden did half the job last May when he reduced the excise to 2½%.

"But the tax should never have been imposed in the first place.

"And it should be totally lifted now."

Mr. Dunstan said it was absurd that a Government ostensibly dedicated to helping rural industry had placed a damaging impost on the one sector of primary production which has been thriving.

The excise had had a discriminatory effect in that it had hit South Australia - the country's leading wine State - particularly hard.

"I hope that in making his budget proposals Mr. Snedden will heed all the representations that have been made to him and lift this unnecessary tax", the Premier said.

The Premier said it was a tribute to the enterprise of Kaiser Stuhl Wines as well as to the quality of their product that they had been able to launch an expansion programme despite such difficulties as those produced by the excise.